French Canada and the St Lawrence

Day One - Travel to northern Virginia

We set out this morning for a wonderful tour of the St Lawrence River and French Canada. We travel through the mountains of NC to our overnight stop in northern Virginia. (D)

Day Two - Poconos/Syracuse, NY

Today we continue our journey north through the Pocono Mountains of Pennsylvania and the upstate of New York to Syracuse NY, where we drive by the last remaining "Weightlock Building" in America. We overnight north of Syracuse. (CB, D)

Day Three - Land of 1000 Islands, Ontario

The area where Lake Ontario and the St Lawrence River join contains over 1000 islands. Rich with history, this area has been home to millionaires and vacationers alike. We will take a lunch cruise exploring many of the islands, including Millionaire Row. We overnight near Montreal. (CB, L, D)

Day Four - Tour Montreal and travel to Quebec City

The next days are like visiting France, but you don't have to fly! We will visit some of the most impressive cathedrals in North America. We enjoy a guided tour of Montreal before traveling to Quebec City where we will have dinner and our overnight stay. (CB, D)

Day Five - Tour Quebec City & Condres Island

This morning we tour the oldest walled city in North America. Our guided tour will take us through the narrow streets reminiscent of classic Europe. You will be able to shop and enjoy lunch in an environment that seems an ocean away, without having to board a plane. This afternoon we continue up the St Lawrence where we visit the world famous St Anne de Beupre Shrine. This spectacular cathedral is known as a place of miracles. We then take the ferry to the charming Condres Island for a three night stay. (CB, D)

Day Six -Coudres Island

Named after famed 16th century explorer Jacques Cartier, this unique French speaking isle, was once the first stop of ships entering the narrowing waters of the St Lawrence Riverway. Now a destination of thousands for vacationers, this beautiful island mirrors the French countryside in the same way Quebec city mirrors the European cities. You will enjoy a leisurely tour of this beautiful island and have plenty of time to rest and relax. This evening will be a fun evening of traditional entertainment and fun. (B, D)

Day Seven - Whale Watching

In the mid-morning, after a relaxed full breakfast, you will enjoy breathtaking views of the St Lawrence River as we travel north along the beautiful St. Lawrence. We even take a whale watching cruise where you can see up to six species including the blue whale, the world's largest mammal. All three days on Isle aux Coudres include wonderful dinners with live entertainment and full hot breakfasts. (B, D)

Day Eight - Travel to Maine/LL Bean/ Kennebunkport/

This morning we cross the St. Lawrence River and return to the US and through Maine. You will have an included lunch at the logging town of Jackman. In the afternoon we continue to beautiful Freeport ME, home of LL Bean, for shopping and dinner (on your own). We overnight near Freeport. (B, L)

Day Nine - Visit Kennebunkport and travel through New Hampshire and Massachusetts

Traveling south we drive through the charming village of Kennebunkport. We overnight in the Hudson River Valley near Fishkill, NY (CB, D)

Day Ten - Travel through the Pocono Mts to Northern Virginia

We will stop at the historic Harbor Front in Baltimore for lunch (on your own) and continue to central Virginia for our overnight. (CB)

Day Eleven - Return to North Georgia

We travel through Virginia and North Carolina and arrive home in time for supper. (CB)
